

What our visitors most enjoyed:

“I loved the tour around the classrooms and thought the charters were amazing.”

“The visits around the classes by the young people and to see how empowered they all were.”

What they learnt about Pupil Voice:

“It is embedded – fantastic that the school has a range of ways for children to have a real voice and influence both every day and in strategic decision making too. Love the different roles on school council board.”

How RRSA is best represented:

“The children were very enthusiastic about children’s rights – eager to show us what is happening in their school.”
